

THIRD TRIAL IS DENIED TO BECKER; MUST DIE FOR ROSENTHAL MURDER

ITALIANS INVADE AUSTRIA; CROSS BORDER NEAR TRIESTE; FOUR TOWNS ARE CAPTURED

Reports From European Cities Say Kaiser and von Hindenburg Are Hurrying to Lead in War Upon Latest Foes.

ROME, Italy, May 25 (Via Paris).—Official announcement was made by the War Office to-day that Italian forces had penetrated Austria, occupying Caporetto, the heights between the Judrio and the Isonzo and the towns of Cormons, Cervignago and Terzo.

[This announcement indicates that the Italians have avoided a clash in the upper valley of the Adige and the Trentino, where great forces of Austro-German troops are said to be concentrated. Instead, the Italian army has crossed the Austrian frontier more than one hundred miles eastward and appears to be striking at Trieste, the great city which they hope to restore to Italian territory.]

[Caporetto, the first town mentioned as having been captured, is about forty-five miles north of Trieste. Cormons is only twenty-five miles from Trieste. It is twenty miles from Caporetto and the same distance from Udine, chief railroad centre in Northeastern Italy. The Isonzo River flows from Caporetto southward into the Gulf of Trieste.]

The official statement says these operations took place yesterday in the Austrian crownland of Carniole and in the Friuli district. It reads as follows:

"On the Carniole front Austrian artillery opened fire against our positions without results during the day of May 24. Our artillery fired on positions occupied by artillery of the enemy.

"On the Friuli front our troops advanced everywhere and encountered only feeble resistance. We have occupied Caporetto, the heights between the Idria and Isonzo Rivers, Cormons, Cervignago and Terzo. The enemy withdrew, destroying bridges and burning houses.

"Our torpedo destroyers opened fire against the enemy's detachments at the port of Buso, and have disembarked troops. We captured seventy Austrians who had been sent to Venice. Our losses were one dead and some wounded."

The Italian Ministry of Marine has given out the following announcement:

"A steamer arriving at Barletta reports that while passing near the promontory of Gargano at midnight last night she sighted an Austrian warship with a heavy list. She was escorted by four torpedo-boats.

"This probably is the warship which was driven off from Barletta after having fired several shots."

Five or six civilians were killed and a train travelling at full speed was struck by a shell during the Austrian bombardment of the Italian town of Ancona.

The fire of the warships damaged part of the railroad station and five engines. The damage to the port was insignificant. That in the town was somewhat more extensive.

Holland Protests to Germany Against Sinking of Lusitania

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (via London), May 25 (Associated Press).—The Government of the Netherlands has sent a note to Germany protesting against the sinking on May 7 of the Cunard Line steamer Lusitania by a German submarine. The contents of this note are substantially the same as that in the American communication on the same subject.

The lives of several Dutch subjects were lost when the Lusitania was torpedoed.

Kaiser and von Hindenburg To Lead Troops Against Italy

LONDON, May 25.—According to reports from Petrograd, The Hague, Amsterdam, Rome and other European cities, the Austro-German commanders have planned a quick blow by which they hope to crush the Italian army at the very start. It is asserted that from 100,000 to 200,000 troops are to be sent to the front with the German Kaiser and von Hindenburg, hero of several great drives in Poland and the Russian Empire.

EUGENIA KELLY REPENTS, WEEPS AND WILL BE GOOD

Reconciled to Her Mother, She Will Visit Her Sister, Mrs. Thomas.

TAKES COURT'S ADVICE.

Magistrate House Admonishes Girl That Her Mother Is Her Best Friend.

Eugenia Kelly, realizing, after four days, that her mother, Mrs. Edward Kelly, had the right, under the law, to keep her from staying away from home nights with tango dancers and the type of men Mayor Gaynor used to call "wine guzzlers," broke down this afternoon and in the presence of Magistrate House and a large gathering of her Broadway night moth friends said she was sorry and would not do it again.

The proceeding in Yorkville Court to have the eighteen-year-old girl declared an incorrigible child, likely to become depraved, and to have her placed under the guardianship of the court stopped short. Miss Kelly, accompanied by her mother and Mrs. Ralph H. Thomas, her sister, went to Mrs. Thomas's city home, weeping. She will live with Mrs. Thomas at Sands Point for a month or more until she is rested from the strain of the public scandal of the last few days and from the days which preceded it and brought it on.

When Miss Kelly walked into court before Magistrate House this afternoon she was dressed becomingly in a blue frock with silver buttons. She wore large black earrings and a big blue leghorn hat, and there was a murmur of admiration from her gay friends, whose automobiles filled Fifty-seventh Street in front of the court house. She looked very unlike a young woman about to declare her penitence.

John F. McIntyre, who had been at the house of Mrs. Thomas, No. 215 Park Avenue, conferring with Miss Kelly, her mother, and George J. Gillespie, the attorney who represented her former lawyer, Frank L. Crocker, when the latter was taken with typhoid fever yesterday, rose and told Magistrate House that Mr. Gillespie, with whom he was completely in accord,

U. S. AND BRITAIN SETTLE ALL DISPUTES

Ambassador Page and Sir Edward Grey, in Conference, Find Way Out of All Difficulties.

LONDON, May 25.—Following a conference this afternoon between American Ambassador Page and Sir Edward Grey, British Foreign Secretary, it was stated that all misunderstandings between the United States and Great Britain regarding trade negotiations have been cleared away.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Secretary Bryan announced this afternoon that the State Department had agreed to take up with the British Government the detention of American-owned mail cargoes at British ports. It was said that the British will be asked to have the prize court, which has jurisdiction in these cases, to bring them to trial immediately.

ELLA BRYSON AND TOP O' THE MORNING BELMONT WINNERS

Pleasant Weather Swells the Crowd to 6,000—Track Is Still Heavy.

BELMONT WINNERS.

FIRST RACE—Ella Bryson, 10 to 1, first; Minirel, 6 to 5, place, second; Chesterton, even, show, third. Time—1:15.

SECOND RACE—Top o' the Morning, 16 to 5, first; The Finn, 8 to 5, place, second; Glimming, 3 to 2, show, third. Time—1:05.5.

THIRD RACE—Yankee Molasses, 2 to 1, first; Top Hat, even, place, second; Master Prynne, out, show, third. Time—1:20.1.5.

BELMONT PARK, NEW YORK. May 25.—Pleasant weather swelled the crowd here to-day to about 6,000. The track was still heavy. Everything was regarded as having a chance in the opening event. When it came to the race Ella Bryson jumped away in front and was never headed, though she just did win. Minirel chased her all the way and right at the post seemed to have caught her, but the judges decided otherwise.

Chesterton was along in time to get the show money. The well-played Bromfield was knocked back early and could not make up for the interference.

Minirel out the three-year-old handicap field down to his starters, leaving Kankakee the favorite. When the barrier shot up Top o' the Morning stepped out and topped his field all the way home.

The Finn offered strong contention
